

Shelburne Ship Repair is seeking Spray Painters / Labourers for future opportunities.

Qualifications:

- Ability to work with different types of materials or products such as general metal products, construction materials or coatings
- Complete understanding of spray painting equipment, painting and general labour skills
- 2 - 4 years of experience is preferred, particularly in an industrial and/or construction environment, but not essential.
- Must be able to wear respiratory protection as required
- Must be capable of working at heights and in confined spaces

KEY REQUIRMENTS:

- You must be eligible to work in Canada to apply for this job
- A pre-employment physical is required
- A background check will be performed by the Employer

Physical effort and work conditions:

- Candidates will be required to wear respiratory protective equipment and must comply with all safety regulations regarding the proper fit and use of this personal protective equipment
- Candidates will be required to work at heights from ladders, scaffolding, and platforms; stand, stoop, bend, kneel, and climb and work in confined spaces and inclement weather and support extended hours and overtime as business needs dictate. Work may be performed indoors and outdoors. You will frequently handle, lift, carry, and set up parts and equipment that weigh up to fifty (50lbs) pounds. Occasionally lift and carry items that weigh over fifty (50lbs) pounds.

All successful applicants must meet requirements for Canadian Controlled Goods Program (CGP), Canadian Government Security clearance, and U.S. International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR).

Key Responsibilities:

- Spray painting marine and industrial coatings to a specified application requirement
- General surface preparation and painting
- General labour duties as required
- Work setting experience: shipbuilding and repair, steel industry
- Type of materials or products: general metal products, construction materials or coatings

What We Offer:

- Irving Shipbuilding is proud to offer a competitive salary and benefits package, including but not limited to medical, dental, and vision